

Solomon's Pure Love Story

The Song of Solomon

Love always wins!

---

1 Cor. 13:4-8

"Love never fails."

The anticipation of marriage
(courtship) - 1:1-3:5.

The reality of marriage (wedding and wedding night) - 3:6-5:1.

The problems of marriage (marital spat) - 5:2-6:3.

The healing of marriage (marital reconciliation) - 6:4-8:4.

S of S 3:6-11

The Wedding Processional

A familiar scene in the Gospels
Mat. 25:1-13

“Let marriage be held in honor”
Heb. 13:4

S of S 4:1; 4:7; 5:10-16

Post-Wedding Romance

Romance should never die after the wedding vows are recited.

We need to strive to maintain desirability.

We need to constantly remind our mates of our love and desire for them.

S of S 5:2-6

A Marital Conflict

Marriage conflict happens because marriage is the joining together of fallible human beings.

If you are married long enough, you will have marital conflict.

The strength of a marriage is not determined by whether or not they ever have an argument, but rather what they do when they have an argument.

S of S 6-8

Marital Reconciliation

When two people truly love one another, there is great strength in their relationship.

Heb. 13:5-6

Our security is Christ's unfailing love for us.

Eph. 5:25

Our marital love is exemplified in Christ's love for His church:

"I will never leave you nor forsake you."
