

Prepared For God's Use

A person in a dark t-shirt and khaki pants stands on a rocky outcrop, looking out over a vast, green landscape. In the background, there is a large body of water, possibly a lake or bay, and distant mountains under a dramatic sky with soft, colorful clouds. The scene is captured in a wide-angle shot, emphasizing the scale of the natural environment.

How Does God Prepare Us...

“Elijah was a man with a similar nature as ours. He prayed diligently that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. ¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and the sky poured forth rain, and the earth produced its fruits.”

How Does God Prepare Us...

“16 Be careful, or you will be enticed to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them. 17 Then the Lord’s anger will burn against you, and he will shut up the heavens so that it will not rain and the ground will yield no produce, and you will soon perish from the good land the Lord is giving you.”

(Deuteronomy 11:16-17)

Widow's Son Dies

A person stands on a rocky outcrop, looking out over a vast, green valley. In the distance, a large body of water is visible, and a prominent, jagged rock formation rises on the right. The sky is filled with dramatic, colorful clouds, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall scene is one of natural beauty and tranquility.

“²⁵ I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land. ²⁶ Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon.”

(Luke 4:25-27)
